

Jacques Cousteau

Holly Martinez
A.L.L. Cherry Hill Elementary
(Permission Given)

Outline

Jacques Cousteau is significant in world history for his ocean explorations.

I. Who is Jacques Cousteau?

A. Birth and early life

1. Born June 11, 1910 in Saint-Andre-de-Cubzac, France.
2. Traveled often.
3. Learned to love the sea.
4. Tried goggles for the first time.

B. Education

1. He did not like school. He would get bored.
2. Was sent to a French board school. He broke many windows and was expelled.
3. Later was sent to a German school which he liked.

II. How Jacques Cousteau became significant in history

A. Occupation

1. He served a tour of duty in Shanghai.
2. Worked in the navy.
3. Worked underwater and got in accidents.

B. Service

1. Helped promote underwater conservation.
2. Inspired many to scuba dive.

III. Why Jacques Cousteau became significant in history.

A. Reasons

1. He helped unlock the mysteries of the sea.
2. He invented many great things to help people explore the ocean.

B. Evidence

1. His inventions.
2. Written materials.
3. Movies.